

La Celle, Provence, France

Nestled in the heart of the Coteaux Varois vineyard, between Marseille, Aix-en-Provence and Saint-Tropez, the Hostellerie de l'Abbaye de La Celle , intimate and refined refuge, is the ideal place to take advantage of a gastronomic journey and share exceptional moments with family or friends. A majestic House, where rooms and suites preserved the authenticity and charm of its past, that invites you to a timeless getaway.

The Benedictine Abbey, dating from the XIIIth century, is surrounded by a park with centuries old chestnut trees and has a one Michelin star restaurant. The serenity that emanates from this place will leave you with an unforgettable experience. Enjoy an awakening senses stay where you can enjoy the southern sun and generous cuisine honoring local flavors. A peaceful hotel, between vineyards and nature, where your stay will be enhanced by activities around gastronomy, oenology and the art of living in Provence.

The Benedictine Chapter House

This is in the magnificent Green Provence that the Hostellerie de l'Abbaye de la Celle welcomes you for the organization of your meeting, congress, team building day, seminar, event, wedding, etc. In the historic building, dated from the XIIth century, the Benedictine Chapter House of 77 m² can be fully privatized.
